HOBART J. ROBERTS, '14, KILLED IN FRANCE.

RESIGNED OFFICER'S COMMISSION TO GET INTO BATTLE AS A PRIVATE.

Hobart J. Roberts, '14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Roberts of 1505 Miller Street, has made the supreme sacrifice in battle-torn France. A telegram from the War Department to the young man's parents October 10, told the sad story briefly—that Hobart J. Roberts had died on the field of battle. He had tried to enlist in the Aviation Corps last fall, but was rejected owing to defective hearing. He was successful, however, in joining the Canadian army and was stationed for some time at Niagara, Ont., as instructor in bayonet fighting. Mr. Roberts's progress in the army was remarkably rapid, and in March he was sent with troops to England, having gained the rank of sergeant-major.

His foremost desire was to get to France and take part in the battle raging there. At his own request he was reverted to private and was sent to France with a draft from England. His mother recently received a letter from him written in a dugout in France, in which he stated that it seemed good to be back as one of the boys again and take his medicine like the rest. Mr. Roberts had been in France but two months when his death occurred.

Hubert Roberts was born in this city 28 years ago and had spent most of his life in Utica. He was a graduate of the Utica Free Academy and of Trinity College at Hartford, Conn. He was employed at various places after the completion of his college course, and at one time was employed as salesman by the Tabtagiblu Manufacturing Co. of Brooklyn, the second largest concern in the world. It was this position that he gave up last fall to do his bit for democracy. Mr. Roberts possessed natural talents as an orator and public speaker, and also in athletic activities. Mr. Roberts was an estimable type of young man and a letter from a Canadian chaplain to the young man's mother showed that he was steadfast in his religious beliefs and lived up to and practiced them. It is with much regret that his friends hear of his death, and each individually will mourn the loss of an admirable friend and a brave soldier.

Besides the young man's parents he is survived by four brothers, Edward of Rochester, Walter of Syracuse, Stanley of Grand Rapids and Dewey of Utica.

He was a prominent man at college, being on many committees, and was a member of Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity.

LIBERTY DAY.

DR. LUTHER MAKES ADDRESS.

Liberty Day, October 12, was observed at Trinity with appropriate exercises. The orders for the day were read at reveille, informing the men that they would be excused from recitations for the day, also that only necessary formations would be held.

The battalion was reviewed by Col. C. D. Cowles, the commanding officer, at 10 o'clock. The President's proclamation designating October 12 as Liberty Day was read to the men by the adjutant, Lieut. Lucy. Col. Cowles also added a few words, urging the men to subscribe to the loan.

After passing in review, the men were marched to the public speaking room in Seabury Hall, where they were addressed by Dr. Luther. He said in part:

You men have pledged yourselves to give your lives if necessary for the winning of this war. It may sound sordid, but it isn't, but you are now being asked to give your fortune as well. You may think that you have done your share when you offer your

NEW PLUMBING AND LIGHTING FOR DORMITORIES.

It has been announced that a new and complete plumbing system will be installed in Trinity dormitories. There will be new lavatories in every section of Jarvis Hall, each containing showers and toilets. In Northam Towers the west rooms formerly occupied by the Hartford Club will be used for this purpose and a hall will be cut through so that they will be accessible from both the north and the south sides of Northam.

A new electric light system will also be installed. The new mess hall has already been wired and in a few weeks the dormitories will be lit completely by electricity.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

This issue of "The Tripod" will be mailed to all the Trinity Alumni. Our next issue can go only to those who send in their subscriptions at once. There is a government ruling against sending copies to any but paid subscribers after November 1.

SECRETARY BOARD OF FELLOWS.

William James Hamersley, '09, died at his home, 17 Atwood Street, Hartford, Conn., October 12, after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia and pleurisy, following an attack of Spanish influenza, which he contracted at Camp Devens, where he was making a short visit on Red Cross business. Mr. Hamersley was in charge of home service Red Cross work at camps in New York and New Jersey, having failed in several attempts to get into active service. He went to Camp Devens about two weeks ago and was stricken with influenza and was brought home. The disease soon developed into pneumonia, but Mr. Hamersley's condition was considered improved until the relapse which occurred just before his death.

William J. Hamersley was born in Old Saybrook, August 25, 1887, the son of Justice William Hamersley, who retired from the Supreme Bench of Connecticut in 1908, having passed the age limit of 70 years. He was educated in the schools of Saybrook and the Hartford Public High School, from which he was graduated in 1905. The same year he entered Trinity and received the A. B. degree in 1909. In 1912 he was graduated from the Harvard Law School with the degree of LL.B. After completing his law course at Harvard, Mr. Hamersley opened a law office at 739 Main Street Hartford, and was associated with Corporation Counsel Andrew J. Broughel in Justice Hamersley's office. On December 8, 1916, he married Emily Brace Collins, daughter of Atwood Collins.

Mr. Hamersley was appointed to the board of Street Commissioners of Hartford in May, 1914, by Mayor Louis R. Cheney, and later served as secretary of the Juvenile Commission. During the administration of Mayor Joseph H. Lawler he was appointed Assistant Corporation Counsel by

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

TRINITY GOOD-FELLOWSHIP REMAINS THE SAME.

The new military regime has caused many changes in college life at Trinity. It has changed the hours and the curriculum. It has made college life a series of "musts" and "don'ts" instead of a life of comparative ease and independence. It has substituted, to a great extent, company feeling for the old-time class feeling. It has changed the object of the student's course from that of getting a degree to that of getting a commission. But there is one thing that it can not and will not change—the old-style Trinity good-fellowship.

"THE TRIPOD" WAR FUND.

We would like to have all Trinity men in service receive "The Tripod" regularly, and we are sending them all a copy of this issue as we did the first. However, we will not be able to keep this up since there is a government ruling against the sending of periodicals to any but paid subscribers after November first.

We therefore make the following offer: for every dollar received "The Tripod" will be sent, for the college year, to some Trinity man in the service.

Acknowledgment of all contributions, which should be addressed to "The Tripod" War Fund, will be made in the columns of this paper.

FRATERNITIES UNDER S. A. T. C.

The public press has stated that a ruling restricting college fraternity activities had been made or was about to be made. However, no such action has as yet been taken. Although S. A. T. C. men are required to room in the barracks and eat in the mess hall, they can use their houses in their free time, so that most of the fraternities have pledged and initiated new members as in former years. It will undoubtedly be necessary to close the fraternity houses during the winter months, as the Fuel Administrator rules that a coal supply for them is non-essential.

PROGRESS OF THE S. A. T. C. AT TRINITY.

The organization of the Trinity S. A. T. C. has so perfected itself that it is running per schedule in good order. Of course, changes in plan of work as directed by the Committee on Education of the War Department are to be expected, but for all present purposes the military machine at Trinity is working smoothly. Credit for this is due both to the wise direction of the Academic and Military officers, and to the splendid spirit of coöperation between the non-commissioned officers and the men.

Since October 5, the uprisings and downittings of Trinity men have been dictated by the bugle, whose summons have been answered promptly. The men were divided into two companies, A and B, of which Lieutenants Crook and Buck have respective command. Company A, up to the moment of going to press, claims an undisputed superiority on the drill field, but Company B is understood to have it over them when it comes time for inspection of barracks.

Both barracks and medical inspection have been rigidly carried out, the former being a daily affair. At Fatigue Call, which comes at 7.30 a. m., every man is required to lay his three army blankets, neatly folded, at the foot of his cot, and to tidy up his room until it would do credit to a spick and span Week Campaign. The medical requirements call for proper ventilation at all times, this being an important factor since each suite of rooms has four occupants.

The problem of merging the food tastes of 150 men into Uncle Sam's taste was at best a difficult one. Yet the way the men pitch into "the eats," is a sure proof that those in charge have successfully settled it, and that every man is speedily accustoming himself to the army's plain but wholesome fare.

The drills this last week have dealt mainly with the "School of the Soldier" and the "School of the Squad," each member of a squad being required to act as corporal and exhibit his knowledge of the I. D. R. in practical fashion. On Thursday the first hike was taken to Goodwin Park, to get the men accustomed to marching in cadence. The officers have expressed themselves as well pleased with the progress made.

The S. A. T. C. at Trinity is to be governed by strict West Point regulations. On Friday the men began marching at attention to and from classes, under the charge of so-called section marchers, who are the senior non-commissioned officers of the different sections.

It has been announced from S. A. T. C. Headquarters that enrollments will be made until October 20.

FRATERNITY INITIATES.

OPPORTUNITY TO ENTER WEST POINT.

On October 9, a communication was received at the S. A. T. C. Headquarters from Boston concerning the transfer of S. A. T. C. men to West Point. It stated that there were twenty vacancies to be filled by competitive examination (certificates of scholarship being considered only if the vacancies are not filled by examinations). This opportunity was open to all S. A. T. C. men who on November 1, are between the ages of eighteen and twenty-two, inclusive.

The examinations are to be held on October 16, and the men chosen will enter West Point on November 1.

Three Trinity men have sent in their applications.

UNIFORMS.

Although it has not yet been officially announced whether cotton or woolen uniforms will be supplied to the S. A. T. C. men, indications seem to point towards the former. If this is the case, however, men will be allowed to wear woolen uniforms if they wish to furnish them at their own expense. There is also a possibility that cotton uniforms will be supplied first and then woolen ones a little later.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME.*Company A 6 — Company B 6.

The first football game of the year was played on Trinity Field Saturday between the teams representing Co. A and Co. B of the S. A. T. C. unit. A muddy ball and a rainstorm slowed up the game to a considerable extent, but the men of these two teams from which the 'varsity team will be picked, showed great promise. All the scoring was done in the first quarter, each team getting one touchdown and missing a goal. The game was cleanly played and while all the men played good football, Burns for Company B, and Bruce and Kendall for Company A were the individual stars of the game.

First Quarter.

Company A elected to receive and Bruce took the kickoff. He was downed after a short run. Kendall made two yards, Jessen failed to gain. Bruce made two yards and then three but Company B got the ball on downs. Nordlund plowed through the line for five yards and Curtis made another yard on a fumble. Burns shot outside his own right tackle for forty yards and the first score of the game. He missed the goal. Bruce ran the kickoff back twenty-five yards. A forward pass, Doran to Armstrong, on the first play netted twelve yards more. Kendall made six. Jessen failed to gain. Bruce made fifteen and Kendall nine and a half. Doran made three and Kendall added two more. On the next play Kendall went over the line for a score. Bruce missed the goal. Time was called as the teams lined up for the kickoff.

Second Quarter.

Curtis ran the kickoff back two yards. Company B lost five yards for off-side. Curtis gained a yard when he recovered a fumble. Kingeter sent off a forty-yard punt to Bruce. Kendall made one yard, and on the next play, a forward pass, Doran to Kendall, made eleven more. A recovered fumble gave Company A first down. Kendall lost one and on the next play made seven. Another recovered fumble gave Company A still another first down. Bruce made four yards and Doran fell on a ball he had dropped for another first down. Bruce made two and on the next play made three more. A forward pass failed and then Brainard punted over the Company B goal line. The ball was put in play on the twenty-yard line and on the first play Nordlund plowed through for three yards. Ahearn went in for Mohnkern for Company A. Burns made four yards and Kingeter added fifteen. Burns made three. Nordlund gained five and on the next play four. Kendall was hurt and Grimshaw was put in the backfield, Loomis going in at end. Burns made four and then Bruce intercepted a forward pass and ran it back four yards. Grimshaw lost two yards on an end run. Bruce made four just as time was called.

Third Quarter.

Company A kicked off and Nordlund ran the ball back fifteen yards. Burns made two then Bruce recovered a fumble. Jessen made two, but Bruce lost a yard. A forward pass failed, and Brainard punted to Kingeter, who ran it back eighteen yards.

Burns broke through the line for thirty-five yards and only a fine tackle by Bruce saved the game. Nordlund made four, but in the next play Kingeter dropped but recovered the ball, losing four yards in so doing. Burns made four and then seven. Nordlund made four yards. Pierpont went in for Ahearn for Company A. Curtis lost five. Burns made two. Nordlund made seven, just falling short of making a touchdown. Company A got the ball on their own one-yard line and punted on the first play. Kingeter ran the kick back six yards. Burns made seven and Nordlund five. Kingeter made three and Burns one. Curtis made four, but fell short by inches of the distance required for first down, which would also have meant a score. Company A took the ball two feet from their goal line and promptly punted. Burns ran the kick back four yards before he was downed. Time was called.

Fourth Quarter.

Curtis made five and Nordlund added four. Curtis lost two and Kingeter was nailed for a loss of a yard. Burns missed a drop kick and the ball was given to Company A on its own 20-yard line. Ransom went in for Taniel for Company B. Jessen made four and on a recovered fumble made a first down. Company B was penalized five yards for offside. Jessen made a yard as did Bruce. A forward pass failed, and Brainard punted to Bruce, who ran it back two yards before he was downed. Burns made five yards in two successive rushes, but a forward pass failed and Nordlund dropped back to punt. Brainard broke through and blocked the kick, the ball rolling about twenty yards nearer the Company B goal before Nordlund finally fell on it. Burns made two. Curtis failed to gain. Nordlund punted to Doran, who ran the ball back about five yards. Time was called.

LIBERTY DAY.

bodies to this awful work of slaughter, but you haven't given enough as long as you have anything left.

It seems as if every move made by man since the day when he first began to record his movements on stone and later on paper has been leading up to this great event which started in Nineteen-Fourteen and will end in Nineteen-what? However, we have not alone the present to look out for, for there is a big future. You men must make the world of the twentieth, the twenty-first, and the twenty-second centuries a decent and fit place for a Christian, a gentleman, and a Trinity man to live in.

The success of this loan is of just as much importance as a great victory "over there." It may not seem so, but it is. It is easier to fight when you can see your enemy. It is easier to fight with a gun than with a checkbook. But still this money is just as necessary as soldiers for the carrying on of the war.

Do not be deceived by the headlines in the papers talking of immediate peace. The Allies would be ashamed of a peace treaty now. We all know what this peace offer means. It means that someone is getting scared, that someone is getting worried, but their peace terms would mean nothing so far as the cleansing of the wrongs done by the central powers is concerned.

Col. Cowles led the men in giving three cheers for Dr. Luther.

Lieut. Lucy then explained to the men the system of allotments to their dependents. He also informed the men about the government insurance which they would be required to take out. Cards were passed out and the members of the unit subscribed to the Fourth Liberty Loan to a man.
